

Casual Art Buyer

Name: Simon Marakina

Age: 24

Location: Bahrain

Profile:

You know very little about art, but need to buy a present for your Uncle and Aunt who have everything, and whom you know like art. They live in the UK, and you would like to be able to buy something online and have it sent to them directly, without having to pay a large amount of postage.

You are looking for some guidance about what kinds of art might be suitable within your limited budget. You know your Aunt and Uncle like the Impressionists, and that they are fond of Spanish textiles, but very little beyond that.
